This is the Season

Of the year when everything is scarce and overworked wives worry over what to have for dinner. You can do no better than take the advice of an old housekeeper and get from R. C. CHAPMAN a small quantity of that fine Green Tea or if you prefer it try Black Tea or He-No Tea (he keeps every kind) and then buy a small quantity-say two or three pounds each-of Dried Peaches, Apricots or Prunes (he has some excellent goods in this line), and by the way I notized while there the other day-I suppose he has some left yet—a complete line of goods, such as Chow Chow, Worcester Sauce, Horse Radish, Prepared Mustard, Catsup, &c., that you'll find excellent with meats.

CHAPMAN seems to be building up quite a "rep" for fine goods and I am so glad of it, for do you know it is very seldom you can find in a town so small as this such a line of goods as he keeps? Duroth of Chicago, carries more goods than CHAPMAN, but in quality CHAPMAN is his equal.

FREE HAND PORTRAITS. Those intending having portraits made should not overlook the fact that my portraits are not mere "mechanical chromes" or large photographs called crayons by so many picture houses and picture agents; also "that there is no por-trait made, except a crayon, pastel or oil painting, but what will fade; also that I am the first portrait painter that ever made or sold a genuine crayon portroit here, and am the only person in the country that can sketch your face and fin-ish you a portrait without a photo-graph. My agent,

MR. GEO. W. SANDERLIN, will call on you with samples of my work. I will always be glad to have any one call at my Studio in Staunton, where I finish all MY PORTRAITS. Do not neglect this great opportunity, but give your order at once, as my agent will remain with you but a short time. Read what the Staunton, Va., papers say of Mr. Corwin's artistic skill. "One of America's Most Gifted Artists." "Never before have our cultured and artistic circles been more interested in any event than the contest made this week for the order to make the twelve portraits to decorate the Court Rooms.

"The committee were determined to secure the finest talent possible to de the work; and as a consequence artists The Best Salve in the world for Cuts, Bruises, Sores, Ulcers, Salt Rheum, Fever Sores, Tetter, Chapped Hands, Chilblains, Corns and all mositively cures of the leading portrait artists in the country, who showed in their portraits great artistic skill.

> J. Corwin, at $600.00, his work being more life like and showing more strongly that true artist's skill so rarely met with. The finish of his portraits truly marvelous in softness and coloring; showing, it would seem, to repre sent life itself.

"Mr. Corwin is an artist with a wonderfully bright future, and one Virginia is justly proud of, as he has no superiors in the South and few equals in America.

"We are informed that he will return to Europe the coming summer to con tinuo his art studies, and surely few young artists in America today have a brighter future."
